Pearl Home Staging and Redesign

Staging Homes That Sell! Redesigning Homes You Love!

Jayne Stuart, owner and director of Pearl Home Staging and Redesign, can help you sell your home faster and for top dollar! Her design style is welcoming, warm and friendly. With her hallmark "magical" touch, she can transform your home into an inviting place that buyers will find hard to resist.

How it Works

Within as little as 2-3 hours with Jayne, you will have begun the process of staging your home! Jayne will walk with you from room to room, re-arranging as time permits, and give you a comprehensive plan of action. She will share with you her secrets for furniture placement, paint color (if needed), cleaning and de-cluttering, space management, curb appeal, and more. Her keen eye for design will have you seeing your home from a potential buyer's perspective. She will also share her 'survival tips' for keeping your newly staged home looking great.

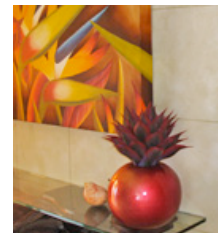

At the end of the paid consultation, you can decide if you want to take on the remaining improvements yourself, or hire Jayne to do it for you. Either way, with her expert guidance, your home will soon rise to the top of the most wanted list!

Redesign

Where home staging is all about appealing to potential buyers, redesign is all about you! Your home, your style, your stuff! Maybe you feel 'stuck' in the same old decorating pattern that you've had for years. Or maybe you have run out of time and ideas. Jayne can give a fresh new look to your entire home, or the rooms you choose, using as much of your own furniture and accessories as you want. She will help you define your design style. Best of all, Jayne will stick to your budget.

What Clients Say About Pearl Home Staging and Redesign

"WOW! I can't believe the difference Jayne made in the feel of our home. We went from "thrown together" to sophisticated and inviting...and with a LOT less clutter! Most importantly, Jayne always kept our aesthetic and comfort level in mind. Her advice is priceless!" (Chuck and Toni Wanebo, Grand Junction, CO)

"I can't say enough about Jayne's eye for color and presentation! She moved some furniture around, added some lovely accessories, came up with ingenious ideas for my tall windows and VOILA...my home fits me even better now and looks much more classy! It was worth every penny!" (Linda Raburn, Grand Junction, CO)

This outdated and small bathroom was a combination of clutter and mismatched decor. Not a room you would want a potential buyer to see!

Jayne put together an updated color palette of soft gray and white, replaced the hardware, and positioned mirrors to visually enlarge the space. A new chandelier replaces the old vanity lights for a touch of elegance. Now this small bathroom sparkles and pulls you in for a closer look!

This bedroom looked smaller than it's 13'x14' size. Jayne's choice of relaxing colors and appointments turned it into an inviting and tranquil oasis that celebrates it's size with freshly painted walls and trim, new soft linens, and furniture borrowed from other rooms. The large window looks even bigger with soft chenille panels and silky sheers. Buyers can now visualize this space being suitable for children or adults.

The family room looked like an unbalanced obstacle course. Jayne immediately went to work opening up the space by re-arranging the furniture, creating a new focal point behind the sofa, adding window treatments, and accent pillows to spread color throughout the room. Jayne turned this family/living room into a colorful place that invites you in to sit and stay awhile!
