She certainly has the flair for putting together a unique and tasteful space. I would highly recommend her decorating expertise!!" Renee R.

Realtor Testimonial: "I've worked with Kelly DeTommaso to furnish and decorate a luxury townhome in sought after Palm Beach Gardens, FL. The clients were looking for a seasonal rental and originally saw the vacant property without furniture and decorations. Upon arrival they were very impressed, stating that it was the nicest rental property they've ever lived in! The style was great – with a modern edge; each piece of furniture and décor was well thought out. I would recommend Kelly to anyone who requires decorating or staging services." Gabrielle C, Illustrated Properties

Landlord of a vacant property for rent Testimonial: "Kelly staged the home beautifully; I received multiple offers above the asking monthly rental fee; eventually accepting the contract from a tenant who paid $500 per month above the asking rental fee." Mike D

ELEGANT TRANSITIONS

The patio would be a nice place for home owners to sit, yet, didn't show any possibilities by keeping it empty. The love seat, two chairs, and tables provided a lovely seating and entertaining area, extending the living space into the outside of this townhome. Decorative pillows, lanterns and tabletop accessories further enhanced the elegance of this outdoor living space.

Vacant Living Room Staging Provided a nice flow and seating for entertaining, includes elegant furnishings and décor, very inviting space as guests walk through the entryway.

This small space was very cluttered and disorganized, making this small laundry room look even smaller. After organizing the hall coat closet, shifted the winter jackets into the coat closet from the laundry room, stored relevant items in the cabinets, and shifted the dog dish against the wall to maximize the space of this small laundry room. Added accessories to the counter top for additional elegance.
