Working with Round Table Home Staging

Robin will come to your home for an initial consultation and develop a plan to stage your home so it will not only sell quickly, but will sell for a higher amount.

If you just need advice on how to get your home looking great to put on the market, she can help with that too! She is available for consultations only!

What Clients Say

"Recently we decided that it would be more beneficial for us to go with a local home stager. We sell more homes with Robin staging our homes. If I had to sum it up with one word, that word would be "STUNNING!" – Julius P.

"I can enthusiastically recommend Robin. She was great to work with, and had terrific suggestions which were instrumental in the successful sale of our house." – Jean W.

"Robin, I cannot believe how beautiful you made the homes look! I wanted to pick a favorite but I can't! Every one you touch is stunning! Thanks for all you do!" – Patty H.

"I am so happy I chose Round Table Home Staging to help with selling my house. Robin is great, and her passion for decorating shows. Our guest room had become a catch-all, and she turned it into a showpiece. We sold our home the first week on the market." – Carrie H.

"Robin is an amazing decorator! When I bring a client into one of our homes, the first thing that comes out of their mouth is "WOW"! Anyone in sales knows that purchasing a home is an emotional decision, and clients need to PICTURE themselves living in it. The better the staging, the quicker and more profitable the sale! All I can say is THANK YOU ROBIN!" – Jim W.

ROUND TABLE HOME STAGING

This is a small area that needs to become a cozy family room! Sometimes larger furniture in a small area makes the room look bigger and more inviting!

This was a brand new vacant model home on a sales center that needed a complete staging in order to present it for sale. This living room is now a comfortable and inviting retreat for its new family!

New construction, turning this into a dining room! Now this is a dining room you can enjoy!

Robin has been working as a customer service specialist and decorating part time for friends and family. Her love of staging and decorating is what led her to follow her passion and go into a full-time career staging homes to sell.

Prior to moving to PA, Robin owned and operated a gift shop which gave her an outlet for her creative abilities. Robin was also a Realtor which is when she realized what a huge difference staging made in getting top dollar for a home.

Since becoming a professional home stager, Robin is able to combine her past experiences into a full time business. Nothing gives her more satisfaction than helping her clients get the maximum return on their investments.
